Category:2007 non-fiction books Category:American non-fiction books Category:MacroeconomicsI believe that I have some measure of hope, but I don't know what form it will take. I need time. It's like the writer said, "it's hard to have a vision when you're in the midst of all the noise." Ascension, you seem to have some perception of a speck of light shining in the midst of the darkness. It is usually accompanied by a sense of a cold wind blowing and that makes it's shape of a star. You may want to contemplate this idea; if so I would recommend that you go to the 'christianbookshelf.com' and read "The Star of Bethlehem" by Hugh Oldcorn. A light-ball is what causes the star of Bethlehem, the real star. I sometimes wish I had one. I was given a gift on Christmas Eve. It's not a star, but a ball of the deepest purple velvet. It glows when I touch it, and it feels like a precious hand-hold for me. We all have our personal light-bals, one for each of us. I think that all that was most necessary for us to experience was a light-ball. I think that as much as the world needs a light-ball, I think the world needs your light-ball in place as well. I don't like the star aspect in this holiday. I'm more concerned with personal light-balls."Benin n'est pas le lieu pour lui de célébrer son anniversaire, il n'est pas en vie. C'est la famille qui a survécu, et elle a survécu à sa demande", a réagi le maire, qui préfère garder le silence, car "l'organisation est en cours".
