Transplant Medicine Network (TMN) Announces the Appointment of Donna J. Berg as Deputy Chief of Staff for Transplant, TMN 2020 April 8, 2020 – The Transplantation Society and Transplant Medicine Network (TMN), the annual meeting organization and publisher of Transplantation Journal, are pleased to announce the appointment of Donna J. Berg as Deputy Chief of Staff for Transplant, TMN 2020. This new position will help facilitate a comprehensive program for organizing the TMN 2020 annual meeting in Philadelphia, PA, to be held on May 13-17, 2020. Donna J. Berg, DO, MSc, FRCP(C), FCP(F), is an attending physician at New York Methodist Hospital and Assistant Professor of Medicine at Rutgers New Jersey Medical School and served as the U.S. Chief Medical Officer at Organ Recovery Associates. She has been actively engaged in medical research since 1987, with her current research interests focused on all aspects of organ transplantation, including liver, lung, heart, kidney and pancreas transplantation as well as solid-organ perfusion and the living donor. She is an elected member of the Organ Procurement Transplantation Network's (OPTN) Scientific and Clinical Affairs Committee and is a member of the Infectious Diseases Committee for the American Society of Transplant Surgeons, and the Advanced Medical Science Committee for the American Society of Transplant Surgeons. "I am thrilled and honored to serve as the Deputy Chief of Staff for Transplant, TMN 2020," says Donna J. Berg. "I look forward to working closely with the Transplantation Society and TMN and all of our wonderful stakeholders as we deliver an outstanding program for the thousands of participants expected to attend the 2020 annual meeting." Robert J. Lowery, MD, FRCP(C), FASTR, President of the Transplantation Society said, "We're thrilled to have Donna join our team. Her experience and expertise will be invaluable as we plan and deliver a program that will be a showcase of TMN's many talents and services to the world of transplantation

Feb 19, 2017 Crysis special fix below. I don't know if I did it right, but it's working. *Edit* Crysis 3.40 special fix \Documents and Settings\sid.samual\My Documents\My Games\Crysis\Bin64\Crysi 3.40 Patch_1\Utilities\regsvr32 Crysis.exe /*Edit* Here is the Crysis 3.40 special version by waaresword *Edit* Same fix of crysis 3.40. I don't have any anti virus installed on my computer I tried to fix this one, but it's not the last fix. As I have more then one computer I will spend more time on it. Check your Hash Check your hash code: Run this fix in any command prompt Copy these files to: c:\windows\system32 or c:\windows\syswow64. Please note: If you are running Windows 8 64 bit or Windows 7 SP1 64 bit then you can search for your 64bit folder on your HDD. After that, go to your registry editor on your "HKEY_LOCAL_MACHINE" / "Software" / "Folder". In this folder look for "CopyFilesToRegistry_loc_key" key and "MakeWindowsRegistryKeyObjectsImmutable_loc_key" key. Look on the top level of this folder and you will see a "Debugging Tools" folder. If you do not see it, you can open "My Computer" and you will see it. In this folder right click on this: E:\RegSvr32.exe and choose "Properties". On the file properties click on "Security" tab. In this tab you will find "Programmer" option. If it's set to "None" change it to "Owner" or "Group". If it's set to "Set users only" change it to "Only me". If it's set
