R.A.T.O.R. has allowed me to develop a fully functional system that will allow my small business to be fully productive with a minimum of fuss. From simple data entry to inventory management, I can easily make use of the features and functions within the software. I have used many other software products that have proved to be very difficult to learn and use. I have also tried many of the more "exotic" type of programs that were very expensive. R.A.T.O.R. is user-friendly, has a clean and uncomplicated design and is a major improvement on previous programs in the same category. I love the fact that the program offers so many helpful features at an affordable price. I have used many of the programs that you can download online. They are certainly easy enough to use but unfortunately they never seem to get all the way there. I have been searching for a program that offers the flexibility and ease of use that I need and want. Finally, I have found the program that I am looking for and the
