Adobe Photoshop CC

Rep. John Oliver has a message for Congress when it finally gets its heads out of its collective ass and fixes the health care system: Go to hell. In an open letter published Thursday on his website, the Daily Show correspondent bluntly lays out a three-prong plan to repair Obamacare: First, let everyone buy their own insurance through a government-run exchange. Second, make private insurance illegal. And third, make insurance companies, doctors and hospitals collectively deal with health care costs. "Congress should have been doing exactly the things you are planning to do when it passed the law," Oliver writes to U.S. lawmakers. "People need help, that's why we have a [World Health Organization], not because we like double-taking around men in white coats." Oliver explains that "bad health care" has become unaffordable for most Americans, causing premiums to increase, leaving people without insurance or unable to afford care. He says a plan that raises taxes on the rich and requires insurance companies to spend more money on patients is the only thing that will fix things. Oliver had some harsh words for politicians too, saying they are the reason why patients have suffered. "The House and Senate [have] made a business of passing laws that primarily affect the least among us and then doing nearly nothing when things go bad," he wrote. "Because if you told them what was going to happen, they would have done a lot less to make things worse."Caffeic acid phenethyl ester inhibits the growth of human colon cancer cells through apoptosis. Caffeic acid phenethyl ester (CAPE) is a major active compound extracted from honeybee propolis, which has multiple biological properties. CAPE has been shown to have an anticarcinogenic activity in vitro and in vivo, but its mode of action is largely unknown. In the present study, we examined the effect of CAPE on the proliferation of colon cancer cells (HT-29, DLD-1, and SW-480) and normal human colon epithelial cells (FHC). Treatment with CAPE potently inhibited the cell proliferation of all three colon cancer cells and had less effect on the normal epithelial cells. We observed that CAPE induces characteristic DNA fragmentation, which is a hallmark of apoptosis in both cancer and normal epithelial cells. CAPE induced nuclear condensation and DNA fragmentation in HT-29 and DLD-1 cells in a dose-dependent manner. Next, we explored the

Q: Which one is better for large data, string conversion or byte conversion? I have some ad-hoc structure with fixed length. Each data element is encoded in some form. Structure -> [Data1_n] | [Data2_n] | ... | [Data1_n] encoding is byte conversion, which is like ByteArray = [0,0,0,0,0,0,0] [0] is for 00000 [1] is for 11111...etc When I need to display it, I do for (int i = 0; i
