Babylon Pro 7.0.3.26 Serial.rar Sep 14, 2016 In an attempt to keep things from getting bad between them (and to stop the fighting at home), Empress Teta moves the children away from their parents so they can't listen to the fighting. Rilla knew that a big day was coming. She could feel it in her bones. Teta had promised a big day before and it always came. Unfortunately, this 'big day' was bringing more problems than she'd expected. As the children headed home from their day-out, Daphne kept trying to walk next to Rilla. Finally, Rilla told her not to bother. "I'm Rilla," she told her. "I'm not Daphne. Rilla is my name and Rilla is my family," she said. "There's nothing wrong with being friends with Daphne," Daphne was confused and hurt. She talked to her friend, Bernie (who couldn't understand why Rilla didn't like him, either). Then something unexpected happened. After that, Rilla and Daphne were better friends. They fought less. Rilla was reminded why it was so important to be friends. They missed each other when they were apart and they hugged and cuddled when they saw each other. I don't really care for Daphne (except for 'King Bob'). I would find 'King Bob' interesting, if I wanted to read a book. But it isn't my favorite, even though I liked it a lot in the beginning. Are there any children (or adults) who don't like the name Daphne? Do you think 'King Bob' is better than 'Daphne', in the end?
