I have a button that when clicked, makes a Http Get request. I want to display a progress bar while the request is being made. This works fine: `$.get("/somedipath/Somemethod", function(result) { //Do Stuff });` But what if the method takes a while to execute? What if it's just sending a post request? I'd want to display a progress bar. I tried the following, but it doesn't work:

`$.get("/somedipath/Somemethod", function(result) { //Do Stuff }).progress(function() { //I have stuff to do here });` I know I can use `$.ajax(...)` and display the progress as I execute, but what I'd like to do, is to be able to control the progress and all that. A: To get the progress of an ajax call use the progress event: `$('#somedipath').on('progress', function(){ //do stuff here });` Lecture Notes in Physics*{} Vol. 576, pp. 649-691 (Berlin: Springer, 2001), p. 645.
