Uni-Patch, a ultra-thin, cooling, face-patch, comes with an all-in-one adhesive system that offer superior performance and comfort Jakarta, December 12, 2016 – EON Connect, a leading global hi-tech e-business company, announced today its newest international endorser, Uni-Patch, a hi-tech cooling ultra-thin cooling face-patch. Uni-Patch is an innovative, ultra-thin, cooling face-patch made with EON’s transparent and eco-friendly adhesive which can be used as a face-shield/shield against harmful solar ultraviolet rays. Uni-Patch is a thin and compact device, that doesn’t need to be removed after use unlike traditional face-shields. Uni-Patch is perfect for anyone seeking an eco-friendly, more convenient, effective way of protecting their skin in any conditions. Uni-Patch can be easily applied anywhere on one’s skin or on a clothes, or a safety material. Not only does it cool the skin, but it also shields the skin from UV light radiation to give a fresh and youthful look. Per Badawin Chairman of the Board and the Company, “EON is always driven to innovate and continually improve the products that we offer to the market. We realize our Uni-Patch is not just a face shield, but a complete solution to protect the skin from the harmful solar UV radiation and, at the same time, providing the best comfort, in the market. So, we
