Gemini Torrent Download is a simple-to-use program that allows you to convert PDF files to other file types, such as HTML and RTF. It can be handled by less experienced users. The interface of the application is plain and easy to work with. Opening a PDF file can be done with either the file browser or 'drag and drop' method. So, you can remap characters, zoom in and out, fit the width of the page, or view its actual size, toggle bookmarks, use a search function, as well as jump to a specific page. Before exporting pages to other file types, you may specify the page range. Furthermore, you can export PDF articles, as well as export pages in batch mode (e.g. export article threads, create a new folder for each file). From the 'Preferences' screen, you can pick the format for the text (e.g. HTML 4, plain text, simple HTML) and images (e.g. PNG, JPEG, TIFF), as well as customize settings regarding the text flow (e.g. identify image captions, preserve line breaks), text appearance (e.g. hyperlink, bookmarks, page breaks), images (e.g. scaling, color depth when rendering) and HTML (e.g. background color, header and footer, frames). The program runs on a low-to-moderate amount of system resources, has a good response time and includes a user manual. We have not come across any problems during our testing; Gemini did not freeze, crash or pop up error dialogs. No recent updates have been made. Yuri Yoshii, a major general in South Korea's army, is expected to meet his counterpart in Japan on Friday in an effort to strengthen ties between the countries. Mr Yoshii is expected to make a speech at the foreign ministers' meeting that will focus on strengthening bilateral cooperation in trade and defence and an initial meeting with Japanese foreign minister Taro Aso. He is on a two-day trip to Tokyo. An official at South Korea's foreign ministry said: "Japan and South Korea have a lot in common, it is possible for us to understand each other well, but we have to build trust." The official said South Korea wants to build trust with Japan by taking a "bold step", but that would not take place without an exchange of opinion. Japan is the world's second-largest economy after the United States and is South Korea's largest trading partner. The two countries have been engaged in a political disagreement over compensation for forced labour during Japan's colonial rule of Korea from 1910-45. A South Korean pastor is being held in Japan after he was sentenced in a criminal court to a 10-year prison term for "performing acts of religion" - but which authorities say was actually proselytising. Japanese prosecutors say the act of Christianity is a crime in Japan. This new video (below) first aired on the RTE television channel in Ireland. The Irish population is one of the most secular of all EU member states. But they have this odd phenomenon of Catholic republicans who supposedly are against all things Catholic. These Catholic Nationalists support the republican forces of the IRA who when they are not attacking the Catholic community in their strongholds in Dublin and Derry, are murdering Catholics in the north. It is a standing joke in Ireland, that the next attack by the IRA will be in Ulster. What kind of sick people hate their own kind? This fellow Pat Balfe is a Catholic Nationalist and supports the IRA. He says he is a good Catholic. However, if he thinks Catholics who support the forces of the IRA are going to believe him, then he is as stupid as most people. "What
