Spartacus: War of the Damned is a 2010 epic historical war drama television miniseries based on the life of the rebellious slave of ancient Rome, Spartacus. It was broadcast on Starz in the United States on June 7, 2010. The miniseries is the prequel to the second season of the Starz television series Spartacus: Blood and Sand, and tells the story of Spartacus before he joins the rebellion. The miniseries was shot entirely on location in South Africa, it was directed by star Andy Whitfield and produced by Electric Entertainment for Starz. It was produced by Whitfield, who also stars in the lead role. Spartacus is a fictional character portrayed by Andy Whitfield. He is a gladiator (in the Roman gladiator schools) in the service of the Roman Republic in the final days of the Roman Republic and the initial years of the Roman Empire. The character first appears in a flashback in the sixth episode of the second season of the television
