of bank fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. Sec. 1344, and was sentenced to 15 months imprisonment. He appeals the sentencing court's determination of the amount of loss attributable to his fraud. Sec. 1291 and we affirm. 3 We review de novo the district court's interpretation of the Sentencing Guidelines, and review for clear error its factual findings. United States v. Turner, 898 F.2d 705, 709 (9th Cir.), cert. denied, 495 U.S. 962 (1990). 4 * Background 5 Carter made nineteen unauthorized purchases on his personal MasterCard between October 1990 and February 1991, totaling $30,500. He made the purchases on various business accounts. The government used the payments of over $20,000 to one of these accounts to cover a monthly loan the bank held against Carter's property. Carter's personal account was used to cover the remaining $10,000. 6 At sentencing, the district court applied the guideline for fraud in a business transaction
