Samantha Ponce-Clark, from Truro, had been diagnosed with a rare heart condition at the age of 29 and had been put on medication. Picture: Mark Littler During a party at the end of last year Samantha said she thought her life was over. But she went to see a company called Curefit in Truro who helped her to give up drinking. Samantha, who was born in Worthing in Sussex but now lives in Cornwall, said: "I'm just over the moon, I'm extremely happy and I'm so glad I had the party. "It's really nice because people have been really good to me, my friend Abigail has been by my side for a year now and she's just an amazing person. "I've had a drink for the last two years, three or four a week but now I'm going to be 100 per cent sober and I'm really excited about that." To help Samantha celebrate in style in November she raised around £1,000
